The League

What is our purpose?

The Whites have won every title. The Indians are still chasing their first.

Four seasons, four championships, and only two names on the trophy: Alan (2022, 2024, 2025) and Taylor (2023).

On the Indian side of the league, Dhiraj made the league's first-ever final in 2022 and lost. Manas has now lost back-to-back finals to Alan, in both 2024 and 2025. So close, still zero rings.

That's the storyline heading into 2026. Can one of the other ten finally break through? Will we have yet another year under the yoke of the British empire? This is the campaign to crown the league's first new champion.

Key Tenets of the League

Play in good faith

Start your best lineup, trade honestly, and treat the league's honor like it's worth something.

Here to compete

Real stakes and a scoreboard everyone cares about. Show up to win every week.

Here to have a great time

Watch parties, a Draft Day election, and a group chat that runs all year. A hangout with standings attached.

Everyone's in on the fun

The Commissioner's job is to orchestrate and manage. Making this a good time is everyone's responsibility.

Our History

Every season since 2022... a scoreboard-verified history.

Our History

Alan upsets Achal to get his first ring.

2022

CHAMPION

Alan, Best Not Miss (7-7)

LAST (TOILET BOWL)

Vaibhav, The Younglings (6-8)

Best Not Miss snuck into the playoffs as a plain 7-7 team, no bye, nothing special on paper. Then Alan caught fire: an upset of Achal's league-best 11-3 squad in the semifinal, then a 121.98-116.68 win over Dhiraj for the ring.

TOILET BOWL PUNISHMENT

Bachelorette Video Submission

Vaibhav's toilet-bowl loss set the league's original precedent: a submitted Bachelorette-style confessional video, posted for everyone to see.

"Last" reflects the toilet-bowl bracket result (Sleeper's loser-stays-alive consolation format), which can differ from the plain regular-season worst record. Across all four completed seasons (2022-2025), 2024's 65.78-point championship margin is the largest on record.

Our History

Taylor takes the throne from Alan.

2023

CHAMPION

Taylor, Fannin the Flames (10-4)

LAST (TOILET BOWL)

Dhiraj, Like a Good Nabers (3-11)

Three teams tied for the league's best record at 10-4: Alan, Nihar, and the eventual champion. Taylor had the fewest points of the three co-leaders and still walked away with the belt, blowing out Alan 153.16-91.24 in the final, the largest championship margin the league had seen at the time.

TOILET BOWL PUNISHMENT

Hot Ones Wings

Dhiraj's toilet-bowl loss produced the league's only group punishment. Everyone ate the wings together. Commissioner is still salty about this “Mickey Mouse” punishment.

"Last" reflects the toilet-bowl bracket result (Sleeper's loser-stays-alive consolation format), which can differ from the plain regular-season worst record. Across all four completed seasons (2022-2025), 2024's 65.78-point championship margin is the largest on record.

Our History

Alan took the league out back....

2024

CHAMPION

Alan, Best Not Miss (12-2)

LAST (TOILET BOWL)

Vaibhav, The Younglings (5-9)

Alan went wire to wire: best record in the league at 12-2, then a 165.2-99.42 rout of Manas in the final, the largest championship margin of any title game the league had seen at the time. Just two years after posting the league's best regular-season record, Achal cratered to 1-13.

TOILET BOWL PUNISHMENT

Dress Up As a Clown

Vaibhav's second toilet-bowl loss in three years: full clown costume, at a real baseball game, in public.

"Last" reflects the toilet-bowl bracket result (Sleeper's loser-stays-alive consolation format), which can differ from the plain regular-season worst record. Across all four completed seasons (2022-2025), 2024's 65.78-point championship margin is the largest on record.

Alan cements a dynasty with back-to-back finals wins over Manas.

2025

CHAMPION

Alan, Best Not Miss (10-4)

LAST (TOILET BOWL)

Varun, Every kiss begins wth Zay (7-7)

Alan beat Concepts of a Dream 159.8-136.7 for his third ring in four seasons. Nihar posted the league's best record at 12-2, but Manas knocked him out in the semifinal, 139.00-120.56, before losing the final to Alan himself, the league's best roster still finished without a ring.

TOILET BOWL PUNISHMENT

Showtime on the Subway

Varun's 2025 toilet-bowl loss comes with a public Showtime performance on the subway, still not completed. His makeup date is now locked on the league calendar. See Communicate Key Dates, page 22

Not yet completed — date set for Sept 26-27, 2026

-100 social credit for Varun (Chutneyman)

Regular-season records are shown above; the 159.8-136.7 championship score is the verified final. Best full-season record in the league, no ring to show for it.

Commissioner's Notes

A few things worth saying out loud before Week 1.

THE COMMISSIONER'S ROLE

Two elected officers, on a one-season term for now.

COMMISSIONER

Vaibhav

VICE COMMISSIONER

Dhiraj

Terms of my one-year commitment.

I view being commissioner as a civic responsibility, not a privilege. I'm stepping up for the 2026-27 season only, to add structure, keep the rules clear, and make the league more engaging. I will plan to step down after the season and pass the baton to the next willing or unwilling civil servant.

If I'm commissioner for this league, I ask everyone else to respect my time. I reserve the right to make a judgment call, even if the rulebook doesn't cover it exactly, up to and including serious penalties or removal from the league. If the league's uncomfortable giving me that discretion, I'm comfortable stepping down and having someone else take the role.

I'll take responsibility for organizing and running the league, but everyone shares responsibility for making it work.

THE COMMISSIONER'S ROLE

Commissioner Operating Model

Every responsibility in this league falls into one of three tiers. The full list is on the next page, each item tagged by tier.

| TIER                           | PRIMARY OWNER          | REQUIRED CHECK           | FINAL CALL   |
|--------------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------|--------------|
| ● Commissioner Owns            | Commissioner           | None required            | Commissioner |
| ● Commissioner Leads / Assigns | Commissioner (assigns) | VC or named assignee     | Commissioner |
| ● League Shares                | Rotating volunteer     | Commissioner coordinates | Shared       |

"Final call: Commissioner" doesn't mean unilateral. Every judgment call, cheating flags, trade disputes, rule interpretations, runs through the same process: raised with evidence, reviewed by Commissioner and/or Vice Commissioner, opened to league input as needed, then ruled on and logged. See Resolve Disputes for the full picture.

Ten responsibilities. Each has their own slide in the next section.

 Commissioner Owns     Commissioner Leads / Assigns     League Shares

Each of these ten responsibilities gets its own slide in the following section.

04

The Responsibilities

The play-by-play for every responsibility listed.

Track & Maintain League Rules

WHAT

Every rule proposal gets logged: where it came from, its current status, and which season it applies to, covering lineups, tanking, trades, dues, punishments, and how elections work. The full rulebook lives later in this deck.

WHO

Commissioner Owns. The Commissioner owns and maintains the rulebook. The league gets input on anything that counts as a major change.

SITUATIONS

Rejected ideas stay on file, a second IR spot, an extra taxi slot, a rotating commissioner, all pitched, all voted down, so nobody relitigates them next year like they're new.

STATUS

Rulebook logging process: CONFIRMED

RESPONSIBILITY 2 OF 10

Anti-Cheating / Tanking

WHAT

Start your best possible lineup. Every week. That's the whole rule. The violation is starting someone OUT or a substandard player when a healthy body or better option was clearly available.

WHO

Commissioner Owns. Any member can flag it, evidence in hand. The Commissioner reviews it, the VC and league give input as needed, and the Commissioner makes the final ruling, the same escalation model used for every dispute in this league.

SITUATIONS

The accused can also go to Reddit for arbitration on if the public perception agrees/disagrees on foul play. If convicted, first strike costs a future 2nd-round rookie pick. Second strike is removal from the league.

STATUS

Best-lineup rule & 2-strike consequence: CONFIRMED

RESPONSIBILITY 3 OF 10

Arbitrate Trades

WHAT

Hit submit and it's live. No waiting period, no review window.

WHO

Commissioner Owns. The Commissioner arbitrates only when a trade is formally challenged after the fact.

SITUATIONS

No takebacks. Buyer's remorse isn't grounds for a redo. Reversal exceptions have been proposed but there currently is a “no tolerance” rule in place.

STATUS

No-takebacks rule: CONFIRMED

Handle Sleeper League Logistics

WHAT

Sleeper handles the football itself, rosters, lineups, live scoring, waivers, trades, standings, covered once back in The League. This section is everything Sleeper's settings need a human to keep straight.

WHO

Commissioner Leads / Assigns. The Commissioner owns the settings: 6 teams make the playoffs, re-seeded every round, Week 12 trade deadline, 4 taxi slots, 1 IR spot. The Commissioner requests additional support from the Vice Commissioner on game days to ensure responsiveness for urgent asks related to Sleeper logistics.

SITUATIONS

The 6 seed (set by Points For) cannot be awarded a top-6 rookie pick. Playoff teams will be provided picks in the reverse of their playoff finish order. Toilet Bowl teams will be provided picks based on the reverse of their regular season finish.

STATUS

Playoff format, deadline, taxi/IR slots, 6-seed rookie-pick rule: CONFIRMED

View the live league on Sleeper →

RESPONSIBILITY 5 OF 10

Handle League Dues, Payouts & Member Sign-Up

WHAT

The second a season ends, you're on the hook to commit to next year's dues. Buy-in is $50 per person; season-end payout is $400 to the winner, $150 to the runner-up, and $50 for third place.

WHO

Commissioner Owns. The Commissioner administers and confirms dues and payouts for all twelve owners.

SITUATIONS

Miss the deadline and be held in contempt unless extremely extenuating circumstances. Significant delay (>1 month past the end of the prior season) will result in the commissioner having an option to replace the existing member with another interested external individual as soon as that individual pays dues.

STATUS

Commit-at-season-end rule: CONFIRMED

Buy-in & payout amounts ($50 buy-in; $400 / $150 / $50 payouts): CONFIRMED

Resolve Disputes

WHAT

Any member can raise a dispute, a lineup question, a rule interpretation, a cheating flag, anything, as long as they bring evidence. This is the same escalation model used everywhere else in this playbook.

SITUATIONS

Commissioner Owns. The Commissioner reviews every case, the VC and league give input as needed, and the Commissioner makes the final ruling. Every case gets logged either way.

STATUS

Escalation process itself: OPEN

RESPONSIBILITY 7 OF 10

Communicate Key Dates

WHAT

One shared calendar carries the season's rhythm, watch parties, trade windows, and playoff milestones, so nobody's guessing what's next. Full list, dates and all: League Calendar, page 33.

WHO

Commissioner Owns. The Commissioner owns this calendar and sends reminders ahead of each date.

SITUATIONS

I'll be really annoyed if you text in the group chat before checking the League Calendar for details.

STATUS

2026-27 calendar: CONFIRMED

RESPONSIBILITY 8 OF 10

Plan League Meet-Ups

WHAT

Watch parties are how we actually see each other. Kickoff, the early London-game marathon, the midseason summit, and the whole playoff stretch through the championship.

WHO

League Shares. The Commissioner, Vice Commissioner, or a named Events lead coordinates each date. The league pitches in on where and how.

SITUATIONS

Nothing witty to say here.

STATUS

Dates & punishment stakes: CONFIRMED

Power Rankings Responsibilities

WHAT

Somebody volunteers each week. This isn't the Commissioner grinding these out solo all season. We need content!

Power Rankings Calendar, page 34

WHO

League Shares. The Commissioner tracks who's signed up for the week. The league delivers.

SITUATION

Nobody signs up for a given week, power rankings will be skipped, and the league faces certain shame.

STATUS

Volunteer-rotation model: CONFIRMED

Other League Content

WHAT

Everything that keeps the league engaged between games. Weekly previews, analytics write-ups, recaps, post-sharing, and rivalry coverage.

WHO

League Shares. The league shares this one. Be engaged.

SITUATION

If engagement is lacking in the first couple weeks of the season, the commissioner will raise ideas for increased engagement.

STATUS

Commissioner-Led Content Pre-Season: CONFIRMED

The Rules

Rules are rules. We will be upholding these on behalf of the league.

THE RULES

The core rules.

- Best possible lineup, every week. Starting someone OUT or substandard when a healthy or better body was available is the violation. First strike costs a future 2nd-round rookie pick; second strike is removal from the league, for good.
- Trades are final the moment they're submitted. No takebacks, no waiting period, no review window.
- Playoffs: 6 teams, re-seeded every round, Week 12 trade deadline, 4 taxi slots, 1 IR spot. The 6-seed can never land a top-6 rookie pick.
- Dues: $50 buy-in per person. Payout is $400 to the winner, $150 to the runner-up, $50 for third place. Commit to next season the moment this one ends.
- Disputes run on one process: issue raised with evidence, Commissioner reviews, VC and league give input as needed, Commissioner makes the final ruling, every case gets logged.
- These are the core rules referenced throughout this playbook. The full rulebook will continue to be collected in this deck leading up to the season.

There may be other rules that are not yet codified in this deck given the transition period from tribal knowledge to the written era. We will build this list together over time.

TIER 1

The Juggernaut

Built to win now and built to keep winning. If the league's first Indian champion is coming in 2026, the road still runs through Alan.

Alan

Best Not Miss · Commissioner-Projected: 1st

CURRENT STRENGTH

Great starters, incredible depth, mixed team age and injury risk.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Ja'Marr Chase (WR, 10232)
- James Cook (RB, 7346)
- A.J. Brown (WR, 5580)
- Trey McBride (TE, 5541)

ROSTER NOTES

Elite and deep at WR (six rostered with real value) and TE; RB is by committee but strong. The single most valuable roster in the league.

Supplemental: 1720.9 proj. offense+flex pts · 71,203 KTC dynasty value

TIER 2

The Glass Cannon

One tier off the top, on the strength of the starting lineup alone. Great starters carrying a shallower, older roster, the ceiling is real, so is the risk.

Shiamak

Super Lamario Bros · Commissioner-Projected: 2nd

CURRENT STRENGTH

Amazing starters in key positions, shallow depth, mixed to older team age and high injury risk.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Jahmyr Gibbs (RB, 9162)
- Jonathan Taylor (RB, 6455)
- Emeka Egbuka (WR, 5988)
- Lamar Jackson (QB, 5032)

ROSTER NOTES

RB monopoly, Gibbs, Taylor, and McCaffrey are three top-15 backs on one roster; a true WR1 in Egbuka; a rushing-QB anchor.

Supplemental: 1698.9 proj. offense+flex pts · 41,627 KTC dynasty value

Narrow Way Through

Six teams, six different paths through the season. Genuinely hard to rank, and the group most likely to scramble the standings.

Nihar

Spider-Jan: Brand New Day · Commissioner-Projected: 3rd

CURRENT STRENGTH

A genuinely two-deep backfield now, Bijan Robinson and Kyren Williams are both true starting-caliber backs, plus four viable starting wideouts. The QB room is four capable arms (Murray, Lawrence, Stafford, Prescott) with no true difference-maker.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Bijan Robinson (RB, 9580)
- Drake London (WR, 7398)
- Garrett Wilson (WR, 6425)
- Chris Olave (WR, 6217)

ROSTER NOTES

Two true starting-caliber RBs (Bijan Robinson, Kyren Williams) plus legit starting WRs (Olave, Wilson, London); QB is four capable arms, no true difference-maker.

Supplemental: 1631.2 proj. offense+flex pts · 44,947 KTC dynasty value

Manas

Concepts of a Team 3 · Commissioner-Projected: 4th

CURRENT STRENGTH

Elite top end at WR and TE, including a rare two-deep young tight end room. QB is the soft spot (Bryce Young/Sam Darnold, no proven veteran arm), and RB is still a committee with no clear lead back.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Jaxon Smith-Njigba (WR, 9808)
- Brock Bowers (TE, 5821)
- Colston Loveland (TE, 4516)
- Chase Brown (RB, 3969)

ROSTER NOTES

Elite WR1 in Smith-Njigba; a two-deep young-TE room (Bowers + Loveland) nobody else in the league has. QB downgraded to Young/Darnold; RB is a committee with no lead back.

Supplemental: 1596.6 proj. offense+flex pts · 38,916 KTC dynasty value

Narrow Way Through

Six teams, six different paths through the season. Genuinely hard to rank, and the group most likely to scramble the standings.

Advaith

First Indians · Commissioner-Projected: 5th

CURRENT STRENGTH

No longer a one-man show at receiver: Jefferson, Collins, and Higgins is a genuine top-to-bottom WR trio, and the tight end room (Njoku, Henry, Likely) is no longer bench-only. RB stays committee-run and QB is a Jayden Daniels bet.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Justin Jefferson (WR, 9076)
- Nico Collins (WR, 6335)
- Jayden Daniels (QB, 4516)
- Tee Higgins (WR, 3804)

ROSTER NOTES

A genuine WR1-WR2-WR3 trio in Jefferson, Collins, and Higgins; a three-deep TE room that's no longer bench-only. RB is a committee; QB is a Jayden Daniels bet.

Supplemental: 1444.1 proj. offense+flex pts · 34,515 KTC dynasty value

Taylor

Fannin the Flames · Commissioner-Projected: 6th

CURRENT STRENGTH

Deeper than the record suggests. Lamb and Allen are true superstars, and both WR (Golden/Pittman/Rice/Evans/Hill/Samuel) and RB (Jacobs/Barkley/Ekeler/White) go far further down the roster than most Tier 3 teams.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- CeeDee Lamb (WR, 9013)
- Josh Allen (QB, 6943)
- Rashee Rice (WR, 3638)
- Saquon Barkley (RB, 3250)

ROSTER NOTES

Two true superstars (Lamb, Allen); real depth at both WR (six-plus rostered names) and RB (Jacobs/Barkley/White) that goes further than most of this tier.

Supplemental: 1560.2 proj. offense+flex pts · 35,389 KTC dynasty value

Narrow Way Through

Six teams, six different paths through the season. Genuinely hard to rank, and the group most likely to scramble the standings.

Supplemental: 1545.3 proj. offense+flex pts · 53,609 KTC dynasty value

Dev

Team Develer · Commissioner-Projected: 8th

CURRENT STRENGTH

Bell-cow production at WR1 (Nacua) and RB1 (Achane) sets a strong floor. QB is a three-way youth bet (Maye/Stroud/Purdy) and WR depth is thin behind the top name.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Puka Nacua (WR, 9076)
- De'Von Achane (RB, 6059)
- Drake Maye (QB, 5425)
- Quinshon Judkins (RB, 2849)

Supplemental: 1471.6 proj. offense+flex pts · 33,029 KTC dynasty value

TIER 4

More Questions Than Answers

Real starters, thinner rosters behind them. 2026 is about competing where it makes sense, not forcing a finish it isn't built for.

Varun

Every kiss begins with Zay · Commissioner-Projected: 9th

CURRENT STRENGTH

A legitimate RB1 in Breece Hall plus a genuinely deep WR room (Metcalf, Pickens, Flowers, Dell, Concepcion, Shaheed), with Mahomes anchoring QB.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Breece Hall (RB, 5932)
- George Pickens (WR, 5020)
- Zay Flowers (WR, 4527)
- Patrick Mahomes (QB, 4199)

ROSTER NOTES

A real RB1 (Hall) plus a deep WR room (Metcalf/Pickens/Flowers/Dell/Concepcion/Shahed), with Mahomes still an elite, low-risk anchor at QB.

Supplemental: 1329.3 proj. offense+flex pts · 31,424 KTC dynasty value

Dhiraj

Love thy Nabers · Commissioner-Projected: 10th

CURRENT STRENGTH

A real rookie RB1 in Jeremiyah Love, paired with the Nabers/Smith/Tate WR trio, gives this roster a legitimate starting core, even if the record hasn't caught up yet.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Jeremiyah Love (RB, 7939)
- Malik Nabers (WR, 7901)
- DeVonta Smith (WR, 5103)
- Carnell Tate (WR, 5020)

ROSTER NOTES

A true WR1-WR2-WR3 in Nabers, Smith, and Tate, now paired with a genuine rookie RB1 in Jeremiyah Love. This is a deeper roster than its record shows.

Supplemental: 1267.4 proj. offense+flex pts · 30,567 KTC dynasty value

TIER 5

Long Season Ahead

The rebuild is real for both of these rosters, but so is a path to a winning record if the best-case starters show up.

Achal

Team Handcuffs · Commissioner-Projected: 11th

CURRENT STRENGTH

Two real intriguing pieces now, an established WR1 in McConkey and a rookie with real juice in Makai Lemon, but the QB room (Watson/Willis/Penix/Cousins) and a crowded, lead-back-less RB committee still cap the ceiling.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Ladd McConkey (WR, 4657)
- Makai Lemon (WR, 3734)
- Wan'Dale Robinson (WR, 1077)
- Kyle Monangai (RB, 694)

ROSTER NOTES

Two real difference-making pieces in McConkey and rookie Makai Lemon; the RB room (Wright/Coleman/Bigsby/Monangai/Holani/Pollard) is a deep committee with no clear lead, and QB remains unsettled.

Supplemental: 1113.6 proj. offense+flex pts · 14,448 KTC dynasty value

Soham

The RB shelter · Commissioner-Projected: 12th

CURRENT STRENGTH

Lightest RB room in the league by name value, a pile of unproven rookies and committee arms with no proven lead back. A legitimate TE1 in Tucker Kraft is the one real strength on this roster.

CORE DYNASTY ASSETS

- Tucker Kraft (TE, 3320)
- Jaxson Dart (QB, 2094)
- Cam Skattebo (RB, 1975)
- Jadarian Price (RB, 1902)

ROSTER NOTES

Lightest RB room in the league despite the team name, rookie flyers and committee arms, no proven lead back. A legitimate TE1 in Tucker Kraft.

Supplemental: 1180.9 proj. offense+flex pts · 12,734 KTC dynasty value

2026 SEASON PREVIEW

Projections & Other Fun Stats

Idk had lots of fun with these.

2026 SEASON PREVIEW

Past Performance vs. 2026 Outlook (Offense-Only)

X: 2022-2025 regular-season win%. Y: 2026 projected offense+flex scoring (K/IDP not modeled leaguewide, see appendix). Bubble size: current 1-QB KTC dynasty value. Dashed lines mark the league median on each axis.

2026 proj. pts →

- Dev is the league's clearest “living on reputation” case: #2 regular-season win% (66.1%) but projects below the league median in 2026 offense+flex scoring.
- Vaibhav is the clearest “rising threat”: below-median regular-season win%, but the #2 dynasty value in the league (#6 in 2026 offense+flex projection).
- Alan is the complete package: the league's best regular-season win% AND the single highest 2026 projection and dynasty value. No other roster combines both.

2026 SEASON PREVIEW

Who got helped and hurt by the 2026 schedule? (Offense-Only)

Ranked by average projected offense+flex opponent points across all 14 scheduled games (11 unique opponents, 3 played twice). Higher = tougher schedule.

- Soham has the hardest schedule in the league (rank 1 of 12), despite being the commissioner's own Tier 5, a rebuild year made harder by the slate.
- Manas has the easiest (rank 12 of 12), despite grading as a Tier 3 contender, a real tailwind on top of an already-strong roster.
- Alan, the overall favorite, draws a below-average-difficulty schedule (rank 11 of 12), reinforcing rather than undercutting his status as the team to beat.
- Every repeated opponent (weeks 1-3 and 12-14) is real: those three games are weighted most heavily in each team's overall average, since they're played twice. Every manager plays the other 11 opponents exactly once, so the repeated trio is the entire source of schedule-difficulty differences across the league. Full per-manager breakdown, repeated trio, tier splits, hardest stretch, on the next page.

2026 SEASON PREVIEW

Strength of Schedule: Full Breakdown (Offense-Only)

Every manager plays the same 11 opponents once; the only schedule-difficulty differences come from each manager's three repeated opponents (weeks vary by matchup pairing). Ranked hardest (1) to easiest (12) by average opponent 2026 offense+flex projection across all 14 games.

Every manager plays all 11 opponents exactly once; the three repeated opponents (played twice each) are the only source of schedule-difficulty differences between managers. Repeated trio = the three opponents each manager draws twice in 2026. Hardest 3-wk stretch = the toughest three consecutive weeks by average combined opponent projection, independent of the repeated-trio weeks.

Model finish = expected regular-season finish from the simulation. Commish finish = commissioner's own qualitative call. Red = the two disagree by 2+ spots. Two real divergences: the model has Dev finishing ahead of Advaith (commissioner had it reversed), and Soham finishing ahead of Achal (commissioner also had it reversed). Both are left as genuine disagreements, not forced to match.

Luck Index: In League History (2022-25), who has won and lost the schedule lottery?

Luck = actual win% minus all-play win% (your score vs. all 11 other teams every week), regular season only, 2022-2025. Positive = outperformed your own scoring. This measures schedule luck, not roster-building skill.

- Dev is the league's luckiest manager, 2022-2025: +11.5 points, a 66.1% actual win rate against a 54.5% all-play rate. History has been kind to this roster's record.
- Taylor is the league's unluckiest: -9.1 points, a 55.4% actual win rate despite a 64.5% all-play rate, a full championship's worth of bad matchup timing.
- This is schedule luck, not team-building skill: a positive number means the schedule handed you more wins than your weekly scoring alone would predict, nothing more.

KEY RIVALRIES & WEEKLY PREVIEW

Three tags for your 2026-2027 Rivals.

Every rivalry card in this section carries one of three tags. Here's what each one means before the matchups start.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Twice this year

The baseline tag: these two managers happen to draw each other twice in the 2026-27 regular season. No history required, just a quirk of the schedule that doubles the stakes.

MARQUEE RIVALRY

Named, and twice

A real, established personal rivalry, recognized across the league based on relations, that also happens to fall twice on this year's schedule. Not just a scheduling coincidence: the history earned the label first, the double-header just raises the stakes.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Once, on the ledger

The other tag for a personal rivalry that is ultra special for that one matchup this year. If you had one shot, one opportunity, to seize everything you ever wanted in one moment... would you capture it?

KEY RIVALRIES & WEEKLY PREVIEW

Soham's Rivals

The RB shelter · 5 rivalries that define the 2026 season · all-time records split Reg (regular season) / Champ (championship bracket) / Toilet (toilet bowl)

MARQUEE RIVALRY

Taylor

WK 2 & 13

0-5

REG 0-5 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

Soham's clean sweep, and it's a real, named rivalry, not just a scheduling coincidence. Taylor's the better-built roster too (Tier 3 vs Tier 5), so 2026 looks like more of the same unless Soham's rookies hit fast.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Dev

WK 6

0-6

REG 0-6 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

The single most lopsided series in the entire league. Six meetings, six losses, and it's not just history: Dev's got the deeper roster too (Tier 3 vs Tier 5). Somewhere out there is a version of Soham that beats Dev. It has never been this one.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Achal

WK 4

4-1

REG 3-1 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 1-0

Soham's one true house of dominance. Whatever's going wrong against everyone else, it isn't going wrong here. Roster-wise it's close (both Tier 5, both rebuilding), so this stays a fair fight even as Soham holds the all-time edge.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Manas

WK 1 & 12

3-5

REG 2-4 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 1-1

Manas has had Soham's number for years, and the schedule doubles down: they open AND close the regular season against each other. Manas's deeper roster (Tier 3 vs Tier 5) makes it a tough ask for Soham to flip the ledger in 2026.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Shiamak

WK 3 & 14

2-5

REG 1-5 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 1-0

One of Soham's toughest series, and he draws Shiamak twice. Shiamak's stacked RB room (Tier 2) against Soham's threadbare backfield (Tier 5) says this gap isn't closing without a major roster shakeup.

| Nihar            | 0-5       | A clean sweep, and now it's official on the schedule too, meeting in both Week 3 and the Week 14 rematch. Advaith hasn't found a way past Nihar yet, and Nihar (one of the league's top-projected rosters, #3 leaguewide in 2026 offense+flex points) isn't walking in as an underdog. |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 6      | REG 3-2 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Vaibhav          | 3-2       | Genuine friends, genuinely competitive series. Roster grades are close too (both Tier 3, edge to Vaibhav on 2026 points), so don't expect this one to settle down anytime soon.                                                                                                        |
| Manas            | 2-2       | Dead even, and both rosters grade out close as well (both Tier 3). If there's a coin-flip rivalry in this league, it's this one.                                                                                                                                                       |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 9      | REG 1-4 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Shiamak          | 1-5       | Advaith's roughest series among his own named rivals. Shiamak's RB-loaded roster (Tier 2) doesn't make 2026 look any friendlier.                                                                                                                                                       |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 7      | REG 2-3 CHAMP 0-1 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Taylor           | 2-4       | One of the league's two champions against the man carrying the campaign's actual team name this year. Historically Taylor's had the edge; rosters are closer than the record suggests (Tier 3 vs Tier 3).                                                                              |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 10     | REG 3-2 CHAMP 0-1 TOILET 1-1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Dhiraj           | 4-4       | Dead even across four seasons, and roster-wise it's close too (Tier 3 vs Tier 4, edge Advaith on paper). As tidy a rivalry as this league has.                                                                                                                                         |
| 2X ON SCHEDULE   | WK 1 & 12 | REG 5-3 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Varun            | 5-3       | Advaith owns this series, and the season opens and closes with it. First Indians enter as the deeper roster (Tier 3 vs Tier 4), so the head-to-head edge should hold.                                                                                                                  |
| 2X ON SCHEDULE   | WK 2 & 13 | REG 2-3 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Alan             | 2-3       | The gap here isn't the record, it's the roster: Alan's the single most valuable team in the league by dynasty value. Advaith's kept it close historically; 2026 is a real test of whether that continues against a stacked roster.                                                     |

KEY RIVALRIES & WEEKLY PREVIEW

Nihar's Rivals

Spider-Jan: Brand New Day · 6 rivalries that define the 2026 season · all-time records split Reg (regular season) / Champ (championship bracket) / Toilet (toilet bowl)

MARQUEE RIVALRY

Advaith

WK 3 & 14

5-0

REG 5-0 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

The Advaith gauntlet, still active. Nihar grades as one of the league's highest-projected rosters for 2026 (#3 leaguewide in projected offense+flex points, Tier 3); on paper, this sweep has real staying power.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Alan

WK 8

2-4

REG 2-4 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

Nihar's held his own against the league's most decorated owner, which is more than most can say. Alan's roster carries the most dynasty value and the highest 2026 projection in the league, so this stays the toughest measuring stick on Nihar's schedule.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Manas

WK 4

3-4

REG 3-2 CHAMP 0-2 TOILET 0-0

Nihar leads the regular season (Reg 3-2) but Manas flips it in the playoffs, a clean 2-0, including the 2025 semifinal upset (139.00-120.56). Two of the league's most talented 2026 rosters, both Tier 3.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Achal

WK 7

6-2

REG 6-1 CHAMP 0-1 TOILET 0-0

Nihar's most dominant series among his named rivals. Nothing about Achal's rebuilding roster changes that trend heading into 2026.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Dhiraj

WK 1 & 12

2-2

REG 2-2 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

Dead even, and it opens and closes the year. Nihar's the deeper roster on paper (Tier 3 vs Tier 4), though Dhiraj's genuine rookie RB1 in Jeremiah Love makes this closer than the tier gap suggests.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Varun

WK 2 & 13

5-0

REG 5-0 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

Another clean sweep for Nihar, and Varun draws him twice. The roster gap (Tier 3 vs Tier 4) says this one isn't walking through the door in 2026.

| Achal            | 4-3       | Dev owns the regular season (Reg 4-1) but Achal's 2-0 when the playoffs hit, a real reversal. Dev's the better-built roster on paper for 2026 (Tier 3 vs Tier 5), but this series plays two different ways. |
| 2X ON SCHEDULE   | WK 3 & 14 | REG 2-3 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Alan             | 2-3       | The toughest test on Dev's schedule. Alan's roster carries the most dynasty value in the league; this is as close to an uphill climb as it gets.                                                            |

| Varun            | 3-1       | Dev's handled his fellow rebuild-mode friend well. Roster grades are close (Tier 3 vs Tier 4), so the history's earned, not gifted.                                                                         |

| Soham            | 6-0       | The most lopsided series in the entire league, and it's a real, named rivalry on top of the history. Dev's also the deeper roster (Tier 3 vs Tier 5). Nothing on paper says 2026 breaks the streak.         |
| Taylor           | 3-1       | Dev's quietly dominant here too. Taylor's the better-graded roster for 2026 (Tier 3 vs Tier 3, edge Taylor on points), so this one's worth an early-season watch.                                           |

| Achal            | 6-3       | One of Alan's most one-sided series, and the most valuable roster in the league, by a wide margin, doesn't make it easier on Achal in 2026.                                                                          |

| Advaith          | 3-2       | Close on paper, and Alan's the far deeper roster by dynasty value. First Indians will need more than history to flip this one.                                                                                       |

| Dev              | 3-2       | The record says close, 3-2, but the rosters don't: Alan's the league's clear Tier 1, Dev's fighting through a crowded Tier 3. Historically, Dev's one of the few who's actually made a series out of it against him. |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 8      | REG 4-2 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Nihar            | 4-2       | The league's most decorated owner against its #3-projected roster for 2026. Alan's still got the historical edge, but this is the closest thing to a true title-defense measuring stick on his schedule.             |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 10     | REG 4-2 CHAMP 3-1 TOILET 0-0                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Taylor           | 7-3       | The league's only two champions, and Alan's dominated the head-to-head anyway. Doesn't matter much on paper either: Alan's roster carries nearly double Taylor's dynasty value.                                      |
| Shiamak          | 4-0       | A clean sweep against one of the league's best-built 2026 rosters (Tier 2). If Shiamak's going to break through this year, this is the series to watch.                                                              |

| Nihar            | 0-5       | A clean sweep against one of the league's highest-projected rosters for 2026 (#3 leaguewide). This is Varun's toughest matchup on paper and on the scoreboard. |

| Manas            | 0-4       | Another sweep, and Manas's roster (Tier 3) outgrades Varun's (Tier 4) heading into the year. An uphill closing stretch.                                        |

| Dev              | 1-3       | A real rivalry between two rebuilding rosters that grade out close (Tier 4 vs Tier 3). Whoever wins this one probably needs it more.                           |
| PERSONAL RIVALRY | WK 9      | REG 2-3 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 2-1                                                                                                                                   |
| Vaibhav          | 4-4       | Dead even across four seasons. Vaibhav's the deeper roster on paper now (Tier 3 vs Tier 4), so 2026 is a real test of whether the series stays even.           |

Achal's Rivals

Team Handcuffs · 6 rivalries that define the 2026 season · all-time records split Reg (regular season) / Champ (championship bracket) / Toilet (toilet bowl)

2X ON SCHEDULE

Alan

WK 1 & 12

3-6

REG 3-4 CHAMP 0-2 TOILET 0-0

The single hardest matchup on Achal's calendar, against the league's most valuable roster, twice.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Dev

WK 2 & 13

3-4

REG 1-4 CHAMP 2-0 TOILET 0-0

On paper and in the regular season, this is Dev's series (Reg 1-4 for Achal). The playoffs flip it clean, Achal's 2-0 there. Rosters aren't as close as the head-to-head suggests (Tier 5 vs Tier 3), so don't judge this one by the regular season alone.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Vaibhav

WK 3 & 14

3-2

REG 2-2 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 1-0

Achal's actually got the head-to-head edge here, even though Vaibhav's the far deeper 2026 roster (Tier 3 vs Tier 5). Worth watching for an upset.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Nihar

WK 7

2-6

REG 1-6 CHAMP 1-0 TOILET 0-0

Achal's roughest series among his named rivals, and Nihar grades as one of the league's top rosters this year (#3 in projected points). No relief in sight on paper.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Soham

WK 4

1-4

REG 1-3 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-1

One of the few series Achal's actually trailing by a lot. Roster grades are close (both Tier 5, both rebuilding), so this one's earned, not systemic.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Varun

WK 6

3-4

REG 2-4 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 1-0

A real toss-up between two similarly-built rosters. Neither side's pulled away, and nothing on paper says 2026 changes that.

| Dhiraj           | 1-5       | A real, named rivalry that's also a season-opening-and-closing double matchup. Manas has struggled here despite the stronger roster on paper (Tier 3 vs Tier 4), and Dhiraj's genuine rookie RB1 in Jeremiyah Love only narrows that gap further. |

Shiamak's Rivals

Super Lamario Bros · 6 rivalries that define the 2026 season · all-time records split Reg (regular season) / Champ (championship bracket) / Toilet (toilet bowl)

MARQUEE RIVALRY

Vaibhav

WK 2 & 13

2-3

REG 2-3 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

A real, named rivalry and a double matchup in the same season. Tier 2 vs Tier 3, arguably one of the closest fair fights in the whole league.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Dhiraj

WK 4

5-1

REG 5-1 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

One of Shiamak's most dominant series. The roster gap (Tier 2 vs Tier 4) is real on paper too.

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Advaith

WK 9

5-1

REG 4-1 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 1-0

Shiamak's owned this one, and enters 2026 as the clearly deeper roster (Tier 2 vs Tier 3).

PERSONAL RIVALRY

Alan

WK 11

0-4

REG 0-4 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-0

Shiamak's one true bad matchup among his named rivals, against the league's most valuable roster. If 2026 is Shiamak's breakout year, this is the series that needs to flip.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Dev

WK 1 & 12

2-5

REG 2-4 CHAMP 0-1 TOILET 0-0

Dev's had the edge, but Shiamak's the deeper 2026 roster (Tier 2 vs Tier 3). A good early bounce-back opportunity, twice.

2X ON SCHEDULE

Soham

WK 3 & 14

5-2

REG 5-1 CHAMP 0-0 TOILET 0-1

Shiamak's handled this one comfortably, and the roster gap (Tier 2 vs Tier 5) says that continues into 2026.

| Shiamak          | 3-2       | A real rivalry and a double matchup in one, between a Tier 2 and Tier 3 roster. Arguably one of the more evenly matched series on the whole schedule. |

| Advaith          | 2-3       | Genuinely close, genuinely competitive. Vaibhav's the deeper roster on paper now, so 2026 is a real chance to flip the series.                        |

| Varun            | 4-4       | Dead even across four seasons, and Vaibhav's now the deeper roster (Tier 3 vs Tier 4). 2026 is a real test of whether the tie holds.                  |

| Manas            | 1-5       | Vaibhav's roughest series among his named rivals, against one of the league's better-built 2026 rosters. Room to grow here.                           |

| Achal            | 2-3       | Vaibhav's actually trailing this one on the scoreboard despite the far stronger roster (Tier 3 vs Tier 5). An upset-watch matchup either way.         |
